PRESS RELEASE—FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DESERTARC – NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS

DesertArc (formerly the Foundation for the Retarded of the Desert) is pleased to announce the recently elected officers of the Board of Directors.

President- John Shannon

Mr. Shannon is a consultant for a private firm placing high-level executives. His background specialty is in human resources. John has served on the DesertArc Board since 2007.

Vice President- Andrea Carter

Mrs. Carter is an independent marketing consultant as well as a writer for Desert Entertainer Magazine. She has served on the DesertArc Board since 2005.

Treasurer-Eric Cowle

Mr. Cowle is a municipal engineering and planning consultant with a background in not-for-profit governance, and is the parent of children with special needs. Eric has served on the DesertArc Board since 2007.

Secretary- Nancy Singer

Mrs. Singer is a retired administrator and accountant for the County of Los Angeles. Nancy is the proud Aunt of a developmentally disabled niece. She has served on several not-for-profit Boards, including as Treasurer on the DesertArc Board since 2004.

DesertArc welcomes this array of highly qualified individuals to its governance and we look forward to their continued contribution to our organization.
